How to get to wallace cititraining by Tube, Mainline Train and Airport

General

Dryden Street runs off the east side of Drury Lane, one block north of Long Acre.

Landmarks to look out for on the corner of Dryden Street are Lowlander (restaurant) and Bloch (dancewear shop).

Driven by taxi?

Dryden Street is a tiny street and it's on a one-way system. If you are coming in a taxi ask the driver to drop you on the junction of Drury Lane and Long Acre - so that you don't have to drive around the one-way system - then look at the map below to see exactly where we are.

Driven and need to park?

There's an NCP car park on Drury Lane underneath the New London Theatre. Drury Lane runs one-way south to north. The car park is just north of the Long Acre/Great Queen Street junction.

By Tube

From Holborn (Central, Piccadilly lines) - 5 mins walk

Take main exit onto Kingsway. Cross the road (to Sainsbury's local) and turn left. Walk along Kingsway (heading south) to junction of Kingsway & Great Queen Street and turn right onto Great Queen Street. Continue along Great Queen Street to junction of Great Queen Street & Drury Lane. Cross Drury Lane here and turn immediately right. Dryden Street is the very next left-hand road - see restaurant called Lowlander? That's Dryden Street.

From Leicester Square (Northern, Piccadilly lines) - 10 mins walk.

Follow tube exit to Long Acre/Covent Garden. Walk along Long Acre (east) towards Covent Garden tube. Then follow direction as above from Covent Garden tube.
